A business dispute that is not based on a contract issue is referred to as a business tort. A tort can arise in any industry in nearly any context. As experienced business litigation lawyers, the attorneys at Meyner and Landis LLP can provide the thorough analysis and aggressive representation necessary in even the most complex business tort claim.

We have experience litigating the numerous tort claims that arise when companies become involved in commercial disputes, including:

- Fraud and misrepresentation
- Unfair competition
- Unfair trade practices
- Breach of fiduciary duties
- False advertising
- Fraudulent transfer
- Theft
- Tortious interference

Determining the viability of a tort claim requires thorough investigation, attention to detail and industry knowledge. Our business clients rely on our professionalism and our dedication to handling a matter in the most efficient, cost-effective manner possible.
