

General Matters

Attorney

Matthew P. Dolan
David B. Grantz
Eric Holmes
Catherine Pastrikos
Kelly
Edwin C. Landis, Jr.
Adam Levitsky
Javier M. Lopez
Joseph R. McCarthy

Representative Cases Within Meyner and Landis LLP Litigation Group: General Matters

- U.S. Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit. Successfully (a) prosecuted bank's collection claims based on personal guaranty and (b) defended counterclaims based on various lender liability theories.
- U.S. District Court for District of NJ. Successfully defended our bank client (which had acted in the dual capacities of depositary bank and drawee bank) against claims based on forged endorsements and payment of items not properly payable.
- Appellate Division, NJ Superior Court. Successfully (a) prosecuted bank's claims for reimbursement under letter of credit reimbursement agreement and personal guarantees and (b) defended counterclaims based on various lender liability theories.
- NY Court of Appeals. Took appeals through NY courts on issue of application of appearance of impropriety rule concerning conflicts in attorney representation.
- Chancery Division, NJ Superior Court. Successfully turned away real estate title challenges in two separate matters involving adverse possession and street vacation issues.
- Chancery Division, NJ Superior Court. Successfully prosecuted active partner's right to wind up partnership.
- Law Division, NJ Superior Court. Successfully defended corporation from claims of conversion of assets, including customer list and employee startup.
- Law Division, NJ Superior Court. Successfully appealed denial of variance for partially completed building.
- Law Division, NJ Superior Court. Successfully (a) prosecuted bank's collection claims based on promissory note and (b) defended counterclaims based on various lender liability theories. In a separate but related federal court matter ultimately decided in the United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit, Meyner and Landis LLP successfully defended bank against claims that bank violated provisions of the Equal Credit Opportunity Act by allegedly improperly denying credit application on the basis of gender.
- Law Division, NJ Superior Court. Successfully defended executrix against challenges to her authority and actions.
- Law Division, NJ Superior Court. Successfully defended executor against demand to set aside will.
- Law Division, NJ Superior Court. Successfully resisted probate of purported holographic will.
- Law Division, NJ Superior Court. Successfully prosecuted claims for unlawful occupation of commercial property.
- Law Division, NJ Superior Court, Appellate Division, Supreme Court. Successfully represented insurance company defending constitutionality of statute permitting pension benefits for volunteer firemen.

- NJ Office of Administrative Law. Represented Fortune 500 company in energy deregulation litigation before the Office of Administrative Law (OAL) and the New Jersey Board of Public Utilities. Negotiated two comprehensive settlements leading to the opening of a competitive marketplace.
- NJ Office of Administrative Law. Represented developer in contested administrative hearing with Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) over issuance of individual permit for major residential development, resulting in grant of wetlands permit.

Contact our office to speak with a member of our Litigation Group.