Overview

Matt Dolan is a Partner with Meyner and Landis and is licensed to practice law in New Jersey and New York. Matt specializes primarily in commercial and civil litigation matters. He takes a direct approach to contested litigation matters, aggressively representing clients' positions. Further, with a business background in Supply Chain and Information Systems from the Pennsylvania State University and as a former Chancery clerk, Matt offers a unique perspective to clients, often reaching practical solutions for clients' complex matters.

During law school, Matt interned for the cities of Hoboken and Newark and served as a legal intern in the New Jersey Federal District Court for the Honorable Esther Salas, U.S.D.J. Prior to joining Meyner and Landis, Matt clerked for the Honorable Edward M. Coleman, Presiding Judge of the Chancery Division for the Somerset/Hunterdon/Warren Vicinage of the New Jersey Superior Court.

In 2018, 2019 and 2020 Matt was selected for inclusion by New Jersey Super Lawyers Magazine as a Super Lawyer "Rising Star".
